WORK EXPERIENCE

He is a partner of the firm, responsible for the Competition and European Union Law area, in which he has vast experience. He is also a member of the 'Your Europe Advice' service of the European Commission, in which he has been working part-time as an independent expert for more than 10 years.

Prior to joining Roca Junyent, he worked at two of the main Spanish firms in the area of Competition and European Union Law. His experience includes advising companies and public organisations on these topics, as well as representing clients in merger and disciplinary procedures before domestic and European competition authorities. In addition, he has a long track record in litigation proceedings before Spanish courts and the Court of Justice of the European Union.

He previously did a six-month internship at the offices of one of the judges on the General Court of the European Union.
