WORK EXPERIENCE

Santi is highly experienced in the field of contractual and company law, and has been involved in many company mergers, acquisitions, dissolutions, liquidations and sales, representing both Spanish and multinational companies.

He is the coordinator of the specialist insurance law team at Roca Junyent, and boasts ample experience providing consultation services to insurance and reinsurance companies regarding regulatory and contractual matters, in addition to all other kinds of company restructuring operations. Furthermore, the work he has carried out as a consultant in Spain for many of the most important alliances in the banking and insurance sector over the past few years is particularly noteworthy.

He is also the head of the Latam desk team, which specialises in advising Latin American clients on their investments in Spain.
