LATAM DESK

Our firm is experienced in the provision of legal services to Iberoamerican clients with interests in Spain, as well as advising on Latin American transactions.

From our offices in Barcelona and Madrid, Santi Pagès leads a multidisciplinary team of lawyers with experience and training in Latin America who, in collaboration with the leading firms in the jurisdictions, offer a complete consulting service regarding transactions and investments on both sides of the Atlantic.

Our knowledge of different countries, which as much cultural as regulatory, allows us to tailor our professional advice to each case, in order for us to satisfy your requirements promptly, efficiently and with quality, by providing the vital information you need to make your business decisions whether they be regarding employment law, corporate law, administrative law, property law or tax law.

In particular, the Latin American Desk of Roca Junyent offers legal consultancy regarding:

- Mergers and Acquisitions.
- Setting up subsidiaries, branches or representative offices.
- Property investments.
- Contracts of agency, supply, marketing or distribution.

- Joint Ventures.
- Project Finance.
- Tax planning and consultancy.
- Employment law and management of expatriates.
- Banking and finance.
